HELEN HARDMAN
HOTEL VISITOR

We stayed for the second time at the Devonport and once again I've left feeling sad that we don't live close enough for this to be my local. The hotel rooms are well appointed and the bed is super comfortable, the restaurant serves some of the best pub food I've ever had (/best in general really, so good!) and the staff are absolutely superb, especially with a slightly chaotic two year old. Its a perfect spot to break up a long journey on the east coast and I'll continue to recommend it!
